EDITOR ALBRIGHT continues to beef about our hauling him over the coals for abusing a good democrat like William Randolph Hearst. In fact he has gotten into the habit of quarreling and it seems that he can't quit it. His last issue contains a column or so of vituperation of the distinguished Congressman from New York, a hard worker for the Democratic party and a presidential probability—if Brer Albright doesn't ruin his chances with his vitriolic pen. Does the editor of the Signal really think he is "working for the good of the Democratic party" when he asserts that "if Hearst is the nominee it would be better to have no election this fall, but make Roosevelt president by acclamation?" No, of course it doesn't, but like the man who said the mule was 16 feet high and stuck to it, the Signal has spoken unwisely and hasn't the courage to retract. If William Jennings Bryan, or any other reputable Democrat who always votes the Democratic ticket, will state that he believes Collier's Weekly is even a half-Democratic publication, we will quit this controversy and support Mr. E. S. Albright for president. It matters not which ticket he may desire to run on. The Signal knows that an independent paper is as much republican inclined as is the so-called independent voter who nine times out of 10 stamps under the log cabin. The Courier-Journal has said some mean things about Mr. Hearst and it is a better Democratic paper than Collier's Weekly. Brer Albright should have reproduced those articles in order that all of the republicans of Rockcastle could have had the benefit of them. But he didn't do so. He knows the C. J.'s record is too much of an open book. "We need a sure and safe hand at the helm," says Mr. Albright, and we heartily agree with him. We also need a democrat, he might have added. Mr. Hearst has proven his ability as a man of affairs; there are none who doubt his democracy. We think the democrats would take no risk in nominating and electing the distinguished gentleman, Editor Albright to the contrary, notwithstanding. "There is no possible chance of Hearst being nominated," chirps the Signal man. But just suppose he is made the standard bearer, what will the Signal do? Will it take back all the abuse it has hurled at him and support him or will it join the bolting ranks of Kentucky journalism? Which will you do, Mr. Albright? Your democratic friends desire to know where to place you.

HON. HARVEY HELM, than whom there is no better democrat, announces in this issue his candidacy for Congress. The announcement is not a surprise, for Mr. Helm has thoroughly "viewed the landscape o'er" and has had sufficient encouragement to make him know that he has an excellent chance to represent the Eighth district in Congress. Mr. Helm is one of those working democrats, who has the confidence of his fellow laborers for the cause of democracy and democrats of all shades, ages and stations will find delight in voting and working for him. Lincoln county has never had a better fighter against the common enemy—the republican party—than it has in Mr. Helm, who has always been found where the work was the hardest and the opposition the greatest. The boys in the trenches honor him and it makes them feel good to think that their captain in many a political struggle stands a monstrous good show to represent them in the halls of Congress. Mr. Helm is admirably equipped for the honor he seeks. He is of fine address, commanding appearance, a strong debater, a tireless fighter, a polished gentleman. While not a Vanderbilt nor a Gould, he has abundant means to make his race but is not making his money an issue in the campaign as another candidate's friends seem to be doing. Mr. Helm's record as an officeholder is a faultless one. He represented Lincoln county in the Legislature with much credit and is now serving his second term as county attorney. Whatever he does he does well and we look forward to his making an enviable record as a successor to Hon. George G. Gilbert. It is Lincoln's time to have a Congressman and unless all signs fall we will have one before the good year of 1904 is numbered with the things that were.

POLITICAL.

The Virginia Democratic State convention will be held at Richmond June 9.

John W. Yerkes says he will not be a candidate for delegate-at-large to the national convention.

During the session of Congress just ended 15,576 bills were introduced in the House and 5,687 in the Senate.

Moses Parks, one of Boyle's cleverest men and best democrats, has announced for assessor. He lives at Parkville.

By order of the president, a new commission for Dr. Crum, colored, as collector of the port of Charleston, S. C., has been made out and signed.

In the organization of the 11th district republican convention at London a decisive victory was won by the Hunter forces. W. W. Byerly, a strong Hunter man, of Knox county, was elected State central committeeman.

Chairman Allie Young has called a meeting of the Democratic State executive committee for May 6 at Lexington, to fix the date of the State convention and the manner of selecting delegates to the national convention.

Anti-machine republicans of the Sixth district, in a convention at Covington, nominated R. H. Fleming for Congress. Bradley was endorsed for National committeeman and Federal office holders were denounced.

Senator Gorman's friends are preparing to resume efforts to secure him the Democratic nomination for president. Senator Gorman is now said to be willing to go in the convention and take his chances with Judge Parker since the Hearst movement has been checked.

The president was defeated in his effort to have the nomination of the Negro Crum as collector at Charleston confirmed at the session of Congress just ended. The Senate democrats threatened to talk for two weeks on the nomination and the republicans withdrew the appointment.

At the republican district convention at Nicholasville, Brutus Clay, of Richmond, and Hon. G. W. Welsh, of Danville, were chosen district delegates, with E. M. Ballard, of Rockcastle, and F. P. James, of Mercer, as alternate delegates; B. J. Bethurum, of Rockcastle, elector; Judge Millon, of Richmond, assistant elector; Col. W. J. Wilmore, district committeeman. Stanford's Negro statesman, Geo. W. Gentry, made a good race for delegate but was defeated.

HIGHLAND.

Born to the wife of Henderson Baugh, a girl.

Corn planting is progressing rather slowly.

J. M. Adkins lost a number of sheep last week by dogs.

J. Y. Goodpaster sold to Ballard Yocum a work mare for $60.

T. J. Teter, of McKinney, was here to put up some tombstones at both churches.

Dr. C. M. Thompson put in a phone for E. G. Baugh on the Kingsville and McKinney line last week.

Will Long and sister, Miss Anne, visited Miss Ora Williams near Waynesburg. Charley Cook, of Somerset, was here this week.

Elbert Turner, a well-known printer of Mayfield, suicided.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mrs. William Baidock is dead in Casey.

The wife of William B. Tutt, of Boyle, is dead.

Joe Berry and William Floyd, Negroes, were killed in a fight at Alton.

The wife of Section Foreman M. F. Smith, of East Bernstadt, is dead after a brief illness.

Health Officer Allen says measles is almost epidemic in Louisville, there being nearly 3,000 cases.

Dorich Campbell, of Middlesboro, has accepted the position of assistant city editor of the Knoxville Sentinel.

At Stray Branch, Breathitt county, David Smith, a peacemaker, was shot and killed, it is alleged, by Riley Doyle.

Mrs. T. Bunch, aged about 75, was accidentally shot and killed at Williamsburg by her 10-year-old granddaughter.

Among the nominations which failed of confirmation in the Senate is that of Sherod Stanfill, to be postmaster at Williamsburg.

E. S. Jameson, a prominent citizen of Jellico, Tenn., president of the B. G. Coal Company, of that place, is dead at Tucson, Arizona.

The examining trial of Skinner and Floyd, the boys charged with killing and hiding the body of young Salmon at Woodbine last May, was set for yesterday.

The Herald is in receipt of a letter from Judge Saufley stating that he regrets very much that he will not be able to deliver the address on Friday, May 20, at the dedication of the graves of the Confederates—Harrodsburg Herald.

Chas. P. Cecil, Jr., of Danville, was awarded damages in the sum of $1,800, the full amount asked for, by the Boyle circuit court against the C. N. O. & T. P. railroad for burning his warehouse and its contents last Spring by sparks from a train.

George Cannon, a tobacco buyer of Georgetown, has completed a tobacco deal in Louisville which will net him a snug fortune. He succeeded in buying up 350,000 pounds of tobacco in the country at an average price of 6 1/2c and sold recently to a Louisville firm the entire lot at 16c.

The grand jury at Springfield, O., which investigated the lynching of the Negro, Richard Dixon, on the night of March 7, in its report, severely censures the city and county officials for their negligence in not suppressing the gatherings of men in and about the prison.

Danville is to have natural gas. Articles of incorporation were drawn up this week in Somerset for the purpose of piping and selling natural gas from the Wayne county gas field to towns and localities along the route of proposed line, which will be from Wayne county to the city of Lexington. The line will run through this city.—News.

Monday evening just as Denton Hines opened the doors of the cells in the new annex in order for the porter to pass in with the evening meal for the prisoners, John Coffey, colored, indicted for perjury, and James Breen, white, charged with housebreaking, fell upon young Hines with sticks of stove wood and beat him unmercifully, finally forcing the keys from his hands and escaping.—Somerset Journal.

POSTED.

PRESTON, NO. 922.

This premium saddle stallion of the world will make the season of 1904 at the stable of J. C. Bailey, on Old Lancaster Street, in Stanford, Ky.

Preston is a brown horse, 12 years old, 15 1/2 hands high, a perfect model, with great style, action and speed.

Preston was sired by Washington No. 54, he by Cromwell No. 73, 1st dam Belle by Roderick; 2nd dam by a Denmark horse.

Preston has shown against and defeated all the great show horses of Kentucky, such as Kentucky Artist, owned by J. T. Crenshaw, of Lexington, Ky., and Montgomery Chief, owned by Ball Bros. Why you should breed to Preston

1. Because he is the greatest show horse Kentucky ever produced.

2. Because he is siring great show horses, such as Electra that was sold to Senator Vane for $2,000; Rebecca, that sold at New York Exchange to George Watson for $650; Miss Henrietta, owned by Gay Bros., that won more premiums in saddle and combined rings than any three-year-old in 1903; a yearling colt sold to J. C. Cravins, of Illinois, for $500.

3. Because he is the only saddle stallion that ever sired a team of harness geldings that sold for $5,000.

4. Because he won the championship of the Louisville Horse Show in 1903, shown by Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, Ky.

5. Because he has won more money in the show ring than any other saddle stallion in Kentucky.

6. I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite those wishing to breed to a fine saddle stallion to see him before breeding. I will stand him at $10 the season or $15 to insure a living colt.

J. C. BAILEY, Stanford, Ky.

Record 2:29 1/4, sire of Maggie Baughman (2) 2:30, Gambruno, trial 4, 2:24; also of the high acting horse sold by J. B. Stewart for $5,000 January, 1902. Sired by Gambetta Wilkes 2:19 1/4, sire of Guineas 2:05, Weed Wilkes 2:10 1/4, Lottie Lorine 2:05 1/4, Gambrel 2:10 1/4, Eyelet 2:10 1/4, Emma Offutt 2:11 1/4, etc. First dam Delilah dam of Clementine 2:19 1/4, Jennie C. 2:22, by Admistrator 357; 3:20 1/4. Second dam Mary Elmore (dam of Cleveland 2:28 1/4), by Mamburnello 2:21. Third dam, by Star Davis, Fourth dam, by Brown Pilot. Gambruno is a brown stallion 15 1/2 hands high, splendid form and action, and will make the season of 1904 at my farm on the Shaker
